MANIPULATED MISS SAIN'S ODDS.

duces False Prices,

Lexington, Ky., September 22.—There was little variation today from the racing of former days. All purses today were uniformly $250 offerings. As a result of the reduction the losses sustained by the association this afternoon were far below that of the previous two days. Speculation was up to the standard, but will have to improve considerably to allow the management to break even on any one single day. The card, however, was a poor one and invited little speculation on the first two races. Shrewd machination on the neart of J. J. Ryan enabled him and other backers of Miss Sain to get an unnaturally long price against the filly. On past performances she appeared to have a mortgage on the purse, and had the books been in operation would have been at prohibitive odds. The feeling was general that she would be an overwhelming choice, and in consequence the other starters were sold in the straight field against her. Ryan, when noticing this, immediately began equalizing his better on the field and Miss Sain, risking nothing but the five per cent, commission, and establishing a long price for the commission, and establishing a long price for the commission placed on Miss Sain with various handbook-makers throughout the country. In this way he was enabled to get over 13 to 10 against his money. It was generally conceded that had the books been operating 1 to 2 would have been fair odds against the filly. The backers of Miss Sain were given a few auxious moments at that before she last furlong it appeared that she would sustain defeat, as she was pinned against the liner rail and Skyo was putting up a stubborn battle for the purse. J. Battler rallied her just in time and she got home by a head. Skyo landed second place six lengths in advance of Toplofty.

Jeff Bernstein, in the third race, was considered equally as good a betting proposition as Miss Sain. Let the was price for any foreign commissions on him, consequently his backers received less than 2 to 5 for their money.

Jockey John Hicks was fined $25 by the judges for interference with Miss Sain while astride Skyo.

FIRST BENNING MEETING AN EXPERIMENT.

Washington, D. C. September 22.—Arrangements have been made for a combination horse show and racing meeting at the Bennings race track, from October 12 to 19. The horses will be shown in the mornings and the races, for small purses, will take place in the afternoons. A number of Baltimore gentlemen are promoting the affair. It is expected that there will be some oral betting on the races, and if this form of speculation is not interfered with it is probable that the Washington Jockey Club will arrange to conduct its fall meeting at Benning on the dates allotted by the Jockey Club.

bling Has Gone for Good.

"It is an accepted fact among turfmen that if Governor Hughes is re-elected every track operating among the Joseph Charles of the Joseph Charles in the State of New York will be closed next year, and perhaps for all time," says the New York Sun. "Since the emactment of the new betting law the tracks have been kent open as usual, but all of them have lost heavily, Gravesend, for instance, is losing about $£,000 a day and probably will quit all of $40,000 behind on the present meeting of twelve days.

ACCIDENT DECIDES BIG AUSTRALIAN RACE

ACCIDENT DECIDES BIG AUSTRALIAN RACE.

The Australian Hurdle Race, one of the chief jumping races of the Australian turf and formerly called the Caulfield Grand National, was decided August 1, on the first day of the Victoria Amateur Turf Club's meeting, with peculiar running and a surprising termination. The New Zealanders had sent over a candidate named Ataahua and only failed to bring off a grand coup with him through a singular accident. The race is at three and a half miles, but Ataahua went out as if in a sprinting race and went so fast that he soon had the others hopelessly strung out and kept them so. Seven furlongs from home, Dagoba left the others and, taking after him, got to within seven lengths at one time. But Ataahua let out another link and, drawing away again, was leading by twenty lengths with the race safely won when, to the consternation of his jubilant backers, he took off too far at the next to the last jump and lost his rider through the resultant blunder in landing. This gave Dagoba the race in a twinkling.

MISS SAIN'S OPENING PRICE WAS CORRECT

MISS SAIN'S OPENING PRICE WAS CORRECT.

The opening price on Miss Sain at Gravesend last Wednesday in Daily Racing Form was 8 to 5, and was questioned by the western poolrooms. There was a delay in paying off at Cincinnati, the claim being that the opening and closing prices were both 6 to 5. Daily Racing Form's New York correspondent was instructed to carefully investigate and send the facts. Here is his report:

"The Cella books and Sol Lichtenstein laid 7 to 5 at the close and 8 to 5 opening on Miss Sain. Charles Cella says 7 to 5 average was the correct price for a $5,000 bet. He had it on offer at the close. There was big play and the opening odds were the highest quoted. Henry Hoffman, Hanff. Jimmy Beatty and all the big layers had 8 to 5. 'Chicago' O'Brien laid 2 to 1 against Miss Sain for $1,000 at the opening."

SIMCOE WINS MICHAELMAS

LEADS ALL THE WAY IN THE STAKE FEA-TURE OF YESTERDAY'S TORONTO CARD.

Heads of Canadian Racing Associations Meet and Take Steps to Form a Central Governing Body for Canada.

Toronto. Ont., September 22.—Evenly balanced fields produced stirring contests at Woodbine Park this afternoon. A majority of the races resulted in hard fought finishes in which the winners were first home by small margins. For the first day during the meeting favorites won a majority of the races, four of the choices managing to lead their opponents at the finish. In the feature race, the Michaelmas Handicap, a six furlongs sprint for two-year-olds, John H. Madigan's Simcoe showed a fine performance. He picked up 114 pounds, made the pace and beat Sir Alvescot out a length in a driving finish. The race was much the best of the afternoon from a time standpoint, the six furlongs being run in 1:132. Simcoe showed great speed at all stages and in the stretch drive displayed great courage. Nicol rode another winner when he landed Royal Artillery by a nose in front of Charivari in the maiden race.

The tabled history of the Michaelmas Handicap is as follows:
Year. Winner. Wt. Jockey. Val. Time. 1902 Merry England. 114 L. Jackson. 610 1:17, 1903 Play Ball. 106 W. Daly 680 1:151 1904 Pirate Polly 125 J. Walsh 680 1:161 1905 St. Joseph 118 J. Daly 680 1:161 1905 St. Joseph 118 J. Daly 680 1:132 1907 Stanley Fay 116 Diggins 1,125 1:194 1908 Simcoe 114 Nicol 1,330 1:133

In the fourth race James McLaughlin's smart two-year-old filly, Arondack, beat a band of all aged horses in a mile dash and was ridden by Bergen, who made a skillful ride. Arondack incidentally showed the fastest mile of the meeting, the race being run in 1:405.

Jokey Garner rode winners in Hostile Hyphen and Redgauntlet. The former made most of the pace and won in a canter, but Redgauntlet appeared hopelessly beaten for seven furlongs. He droppet far back in the early running and trailed until entering the homestretch. At the end he finished with a great burst of speed that landed him in front in the closing strides.

Half the field that went to the post in today's steeplechase finished the course, Pagan Bey winning easily after leading throughout.

Jo

Olambala is not in the form he displayed last spring and his recent work had not been very flattering.

A. R. Loudon, secretary of the Hamilton Jockey Club, was a visitor this afternoon. He reports that every indication points to the coming meeting being the best ever held in Hamilton. There are already stabled on the grounds 200 horses.

The executive committee of the Ontario Jockey Club met before the races today and owner E. L. Talley and jockeys P. Goldstein and Mulcahy were given a hearing. It is understood that Goldstein and Mulcahy and possibly Talley will be restored to good standing at the close of the present meeting. A meeting of the presidents of the different racing associations in Canada was held yesterday and plains laid for the organization of a club which will be known as the Canadian Racing Association with permanent offices in Toronto. The meeting was attended by George Hendrie of the Windsort Jockey Club; John H. Madigan of the New Niagara Jockey Club; Joine Montagu Allan of the Montreal Jockey Club; Sir H. Montagu Allan of the Montreal Jockey Club. The idea of the new body is to formulate a set of rules under which racing in Canada will be held, the allotment of dates to the different associations, the licensing of trainers and jockeys and the appointment of one set of officials to act on all tracks that are members of the association. An effort will be made for an arrangement with the Jockey Club and both of the western turf governing bodies looking to the collection of forfeits.

SPECULATION CHANCES AT BELMONT PARK.

New York, September 22.—The change of racing to Aqueduct will be made next Monday and it is expected that there speculation will go on under the present conditions at Gravesend. Aqueduct will be under the supervision of the police department, which is enforcing the law, but at the same time respecting the decision of Justices Bischoff, Gaynor and Hoyt.

Nobody can say what will happen at Belmont Park. It is known that in the two weeks scheduled for the big race track only eight instead of twelve days will be used. It is a foregone conclusion that all the stakes will be run off, but whether there will be any overnight events is a matter of doubt. It was reported some time ago that the Westchester Racing Association would prohibit even oral speculation and would keep out all persons known as former bookmakers, as did Sheepshead Bay. No official denial was made, yet horsemen are inclined to believe that the report was unfounded, for, they say, if such drastic measures were resorted to, there wouldn't be enough people at the track to be counted.

In running the Gravesend meeting regardless of loss. P. I hwyer has come to be regardless of there wouldn't be enough people at the track to be counted.

In running the Gravesend meeting regardless of loss, P. J. Dwyer has come to be regarded as one of the pillars of the sport. Horsemen say that his liberality and pluck never will be forgotten. His determination to enforce the law and at the same time to permit patrons of the track to enjoy privileges granted by three court decisions has made a hit with race-goers to such an extent that the crowds are larger each day.

This method of conducting a race meeting is in striking contrast with the polley of the Coney Island Jockey (Tub. which almost killed patronage and cost nearly $130,000 in ten days. In taking over the Brighton Beach fall dates and abolishing the autumn meeting at Aqueduct, Mr. Dwyer simply races six instead of nine days at his Queens County track. The looping off of three days evidently was good policy, for the reason that Aqueduct is not so easily reached as Gravesend.

NORMAN III. DOUBLE DONCASTER FAILURE.

Mr. Belmont's Norman III. failed completely in the St. Leger and was last. Two days later he ran in the Doncaster Cup race and performed almost as badly. English critics have made up their minds that Norman III. won the Two Thousand Guineas only because his opponents were all unfit to run that race.

THAT WEST INDIAN RACING SCHEME.

How it Originated and Grew-Promoter Planned American Invasion and Failed.

Kingston, Jamaica, September 15.—The announcement that an American syndicate may decide to go in for racing on an extensive scale in Jamaica, has aroused widespread interest in the colony. A few months ago several Americans arrived in Jamaica with a horse that proved a veritable filer at the August meeting of the Jamaica Jockey Club at Knutsford Park. He raced as "Little" and carried all before him, experiencing no difficulty in winning all his engagements, The animal was soid to a local turfman. Being apparently pleased with the reception accorded the party Mr. Delisser, one of the number, brought up the question of a syndicate of American racing men securing an interest in Being aware that the sport in Jamaica.

Being aware that the anti-gambling law was being enforced in New York State, Mr. Delisser looked upon Jamaica as a place where some American owners could be induced to send heir lorses and then, if they carred to, make bets by cable from New York. A proposal was made in writing to the Jamaica skooth dequired a large share of the local Americans should acquire a large share of the local owners, could be induced to send their horses and then, if they cared to, make bets by cable from New York. A proposal was made in writing to the Jamaica Jockey Club that a syndicate composed of Americans should acquire a large share of the local concern and arrange for 100 days of racing in Jamaica each year. When the proposal was brought before the directors of the Jockey Club it was discovered that it was unsigned. It stated among other things that Americans would, in order to induce large numbers of visitors to come here to witness the races, build a large hotel at Knutsford Park, the property of the Jamaica Jockey Club.

In turn the Jamaica Jockey Club submitted counter proposals to the local representatives of Mr. Delisser. It was desired to have the American syndicate pay $15,000 cash to join the combination, the Jockey Club to get $55,000 worth of preferred shares, interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum to be paid as first claim on all dividends and assets, in the event of failure of the scheme all the buildings of the first the first counter for the counter of the first counter of the fi

Mr. Richard Croker's mare, Rhodora, now doing very well in her easy races on the Irish courses has been made favorite for the Cambridgeshire though she is 10 to 1. The Sportsman warns those backing her in this way: "Those who fancy Rhodora's chance for the Cambridgeshire would be well advised to delay backing her, as Mr. Croker has not yet decided whether he will run her or not."

The Toronto track is less than fast this fall, though in splendid condition, another tribute to that smart racing official, Secretary Fraser. Lack of rain has made the footing dead, and the sprinter that beats 1:14 for three-quarters is doing a smart performance.

The cable dispatch writers in New York are entirely unreliable in handling English racing news. It turns out that Bullock and not Skeets Martin rode Signorinetta in the St. Leger, and that Bullock's attack of appendicitis was not serious enough to require an operation.

How remarkable it is that horses are frequently good stayers as two-year-olds, and yet later in life do not "get" the same distance, says an English writer. Instances clearly are Billidere and Aristocracy, the latter of which won mile nurseries and yet cannot now stay more than five furlongs, although still perfectly sound in wind. With athletes it is invariably the reverse; the older one gets the better the stay, although apt to lose pace.

Yearlings Belonging to James R. Keene and August Belmont Furnished Identifying Certificates.

Latest English turf newspapers contain accounts of the lodging under English racing rules of certificates of pedigrees of a number of American-bred yearlings belonging to James R. Keene, the following being the list: Bay filly, by Ben Brush, out of Contentious; chestnut colt, by Disguise, out of Dorset Flower: bay or brown filly, by Disguise, out of Evasion; bay filly, by Handspring or Ben Brush, out of Lady Reel; bay or brown filly, by Kingston, out of Costume; bay colt, by Kingston, out of Spry; chestnut colt, by St. Leonards, out of Dovecote; chestnut colt, by St. Leonards, out of Nora Creina; brown colt, by St. Leonards, out of Obscurity; bay colt, by St. Leonards, out of Splendour; bay filly, by St. Simonian II., out of Isis; bay filly, by Star Ruby, out of Cap and Bells; bay colt, by Voter, out of Ambrosine; chestnut filly, by Voter, out of Coppelia, and chestnut filly, by Voter, out of Queenston.

Veterinary certificates of the age of Mr. Belmont's yearlings have also been registered and from this source it is learned that the name of the Meddler— Beldame filly has been changed from Consensa to Ballot Bred. This is Beldame's first foal and the result of an expert voting competition to select the mate best suited to the famous mare. The official statement of the filing in Mr. Belmont's behalf reads as follows:
"Veterinary certificates, signed by Mr. W. E.

Livock, of Newmarket, M. R., C.V.S., of the ages of the following yearlings (bred in the United States), the property of Mr. A. Belmont, have been lodged: Amical, b. f. by Octagon, out of Amicitia; Asticot II., ch. c. by Hastings, out of Astoria; Ballot Bred (late Consensa), b. f. by Meddler, out of Beldame; Burgman, ch. c, by Hamburg, out of Enchantress; Lukewarm, b. f. by Octagon, out of Lack-a-Daisy; and Organizer, ch. c, by Don de Oro. out of Ortegal.

"A veterinary certificate, signed by Mr. W. E. Livock, of Newmarket, M. R., C. V. S., of the age of Mr. J. Watson's chestnut yearling colt, Opulent II., by Don de Oro, out of Orienta (bred in the United States), has been lodged."

Opulent II. is entered in various stakes in the name of Mr. Belmont and was bred by him.
